As the body count rises, Violet and her team must work tirelessly to track down the killer before he strikes again. But the killer is always one step ahead, and Violet soon realizes that she is playing a deadly game of cat and mouse.

With each new victim, Violet becomes more determined to bring the killer to justice. But as she gets closer to the truth, she also becomes a target herself. The killer is desperate to silence her, and he will stop at nothing to get to her.

Killing Season is a gripping and suspenseful thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. Violet Darger is a complex and sympathetic character, and her determination to stop the killer is both admirable and inspiring.
