

Smoke From This Altar: A Poetic Journey Through History and Emotion

Smoke From This Altar is a collection of poems by the award-winning poet and essayist Rebecca Tamás. The poems are written in a variety of styles, from free verse to sonnets, and they explore themes of history, emotion, and the human condition.

The poems in Smoke From This Altar are often deeply personal, but they also speak to larger truths about the human experience. Tamás writes about love, loss, grief, and joy, and she does so with a rare honesty and vulnerability. Her poems are both beautiful and heartbreaking, and they offer a unique and thought-provoking perspective on the world around us.

Smoke from This Altar: Poems by Louis L'Amour

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 2933 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Print length : 95 pages

One of the most striking things about Smoke From This Altar is its use of language. Tamás is a master of words, and she uses them to create images and evoke emotions that are both powerful and haunting. Her poems are full of rich metaphors and vivid descriptions, and they linger in the mind long after the page has been turned.

In addition to their literary merit, the poems in Smoke From This Altar are also historically significant. Tamás is a descendant of Holocaust survivors, and her poems often explore the themes of memory, loss, and redemption. She writes about the experiences of her family and her people, and she does so with a deep understanding of the human cost of war and persecution.

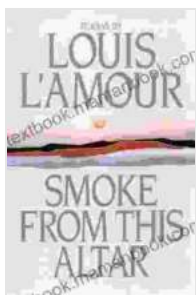

Smoke From This Altar is a powerful and moving collection of poems that is sure to stay with you long after you finish it. Tamás is a gifted poet who has a unique and important voice. Her poems offer a fresh perspective on the human experience, and they are sure to challenge and inspire readers of all ages.

Examples of Poems from Smoke From This Altar

The following are just a few examples of the poems that can be found in Smoke From This Altar:

- "The Smoke of This Altar": This poem is a meditation on the Holocaust and its aftermath. Tamás writes about the experiences of her family and her people, and she explores the themes of memory, loss, and redemption.
- "The Black Flowers": This poem is about the beauty and fragility of life. Tamás writes about the flowers that grow in the aftermath of war, and she explores the themes of hope and renewal.
- "The Lovers": This poem is a love poem that is both passionate and heartbreaking. Tamás writes about the intensity of love, and she explores the themes of desire, loss, and longing.

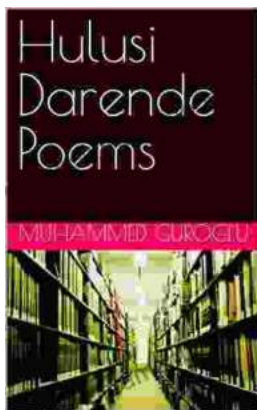

These are just a few examples of the many poems that can be found in Smoke From This Altar. This is a collection of poems that is sure to stay with you long after you finish it. Tamás is a gifted poet who has a unique and important voice. Her poems offer a fresh perspective on the human experience, and they are sure to challenge and inspire readers of all ages.

Smoke from This Altar: Poems by Louis L'Amour

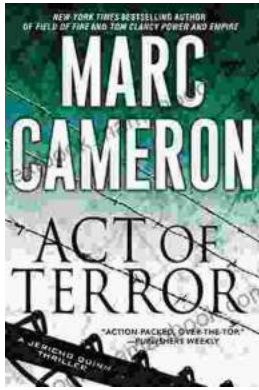

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

- Language : English
- File size : 2933 KB
- Text-to-Speech : Enabled
- Screen Reader : Supported
- Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
- Print length : 95 pages

Hulusi Darende's Poems: Unraveling the Lyrical Tapestry of a Turkish Mystic

: A Journey into the Heart of Sufi Mysticism Hulusi Darende, a renowned Turkish Sufi poet and mystic of the 13th century, left behind a legacy of profoundly moving poems...

Act of Terror: A Jericho Quinn Thriller

In the heart-pounding thriller Act of Terror, FBI Special Agent Jericho Quinn is called in to investigate a devastating terrorist attack on a major city. As...